Tony McGuire joined Verde Pacific in 2005 as the on-site Project Manager for the historic renovation and construction of the 25-story Ritz-Carlton Club and Residences at 690 Market Street in San Francisco, which opened in November 2007.

He simultaneously managed a related seven-story conversion of an historic office to condominiums at 942 Market Street in San Francisco, completed in January 2008. Prior to that, he worked as a Project Manager in the general contracting field for over ten years.

His management experience includes a wide variety of construction ranging from new concrete shell buildings, steel structures, seismic upgrades, laboratory construction, high-end office improvements, and retail centers. He has been involved in managing all phases of such construction projects from planning and estimating through construction and close out. Mr. McGuire holds a Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering and Construction Management from The Catholic University of America in Washington DC, as well as an E.I.T. Certificate.
